² In May 1996 the name was changed from Continuous Electron Beam Accelerator Facility.

³ That is, other than universities and colleges.

⁴ On March 1, 1998, Brookhaven National Laboratory acquired a new nonprofit administrator (Brookhaven Science Associates, Inc.). The previous administrator was a university consortium.

⁵ In September 1991 the name was changed from Solar Energy Research Institute.

NOTES: Data for only those agencies that had obligations in the variables represented by this table appear in the table. For a complete list of the Federal agencies that have been included in the Federal funds survey, refer to appendix A.

The Department of Defense decertified Logistics Management Institute of McLean, VA, as an FFRDC effective September 24, 1998.

The Department of the Army decertified the Institute for Advanced Technology (University of Texas), Austin, TX, as an FFRDC in November 1993.

The Department of Energy decertified Bettis Atomic Power Laboratory, Hanford Engineering Development Laboratory, and Knolls Atomic Power Laboratory as FFRDCs in October/November 1992. The Department of Energy removed from the Master Government List of FFRDCs (1) the Energy Technology Engineering Center in November 1995, (2) the Inhalation Toxicology Research Institute in May 1996, and (3) Oak Ridge Institute for Science and Education (ORISE) February 22, 1999.

Critical Technologies Institute (CTI), as established in 1992, supports science and technology policy. The National Science Foundation has determined that CTI's activities are classified as non-investment and do not fit within the definitions of basic or applied research or development.
